Solomon's Wisdom.

Governor Willson is of the opinion that one of the best and cheapest methods of ridding Kentucky of criminals is by refusing to bring them back to Kentucky after they have been chased into other states. Tuesday he refused to issue a requisition for Brother King, indicted for boot-legging in Monroe county. He wrote on the request for the requisition the following:

"The longer Brother King stays out of Kentucky the better. He can't break any local laws while he stays in Tennessee, and he has to stay out of Kentucky to avoid going to jail. It will cost the state money to get him back and to feed him in jail after he gets back. It saves extradition cost and a waste of useful time to let him stay where he is."

Unfortunate New Yorkers.

In New York we have become so hardened to eating the strange products of the cold storage vaults that the fresh foods of our childhood would probably seem unpalatable. To the diner accustomed to the pale, tasteless chicken of our hotels and restaurants, a real full-blooded broiler, slain within the current year, would taste "strong" and obnoxiously assertive. Similarly, a really fresh egg, neither iced nor partially hatched, might seem to our sophisticated palates to possess too many of the attributes of the ingenue.—New York Evening Sun.

The Crescent.

The crescent was a symbol of sovereignty among the ancient Romans and Greeks. During a siege of Constantinople, 340 B. C., by Philip, the father of Alexander the Great, the Greeks were saved by the light of the moon, then in crescent, which revealed the danger of a night attack. The crescent thereafter was the symbol of their city.

Another Suit Filed.

In the United States Court at Covington, Scott & Clark, independent n. l. u. c. u. r. r. s. of Scranton, Pa., have filed another suit against the Burley Tobacco Society and its former executive committee, asking for $130,520 damages and $5,000 attorney fees. This is the second suit by this firm and like the former one alleges a conspiracy in restraint of trade to raise the price of tobacco.

Another Shakeup.

As a result of an investigation of shortages from wine casks and other packages at the Baltimore customhouse a shakeup in that end of the service was announced Tuesday.

High and Low Tides.

The periodical rise and fall of the waters of the ocean and its confuents are due to the attraction of the moon or sun. When the water is rising it is termed flood tide; when falling, ebb tide. At the time of the new moon and full moon the flood tides rise higher, and the fall of the ebb tide is greater than at other times. These tides are called spring tides. But when the moon is at her first, or last quarter, or at the time of quadrature, the tides do not rise to their average height, and are called neap tides from the Anglo Saxon "nep," signifying narrow, contracted low.

Flag Display Accounted For.

On a visit to St. Petersburg a visitor noticed that on the occasion of the birthday of the czarina there were only one or two flags visible, these being displayed on official buildings. On a later visit, a week or two later, he observed that flags were everywhere, the very streets obscured by waving bunting. "Why," he asked a friend, "do you show a flag now while you did not then?" "Well," was the reply, "a police agent came round and said that if I did not display one I should be fined 200 rubles. So I hoisted three, to be on the right side, and the others are doing the same."
